Job Profile

It is now possible to create job profile text which is then saved as a Word document using ChatGPT. Select Profile and then Create from the job main menu, and from the drop box choose the Generate profile using ChatGPT option.

Once you click OK the familiar ChatGPT window will appear allowing you to enter the Instruction to create a job profile. Once you have received the response from ChatGPT, click the Save profile to Word button, and the response will be merged into the job's Word document profile.

ChatGPT and Emailing

It is now possible to create an ad hoc email using ChatGPT. A new ChatGPT button has been introduced above the email subject to do this. Simply click, enter the ChatGPT instruction within the resultant window, and click the OK button to place the response into the email body. Please note, as this is an ad hoc email it will not be personalised. If you wish it to be personalised then create an email template instead.

Other

The number of people that can be cc'd and bcc'd on an email template has increased from three to five.

Candidate / contact lookup search allows wild card searching on the email address using the '' character. Tina would bring all the people with an email address starting tina, *@troysoft.co.uk would bring all people with @troysoft.co.uk within their email address. Please note there is no need to have a wildcard at the end of the search string.
